

Summer Spotlight at The Kate Scholarship Application

The Kate is pleased to be able to offer financial aid for this summer program. Funds are dispersed on a first-come, first-served basis while available. Most awards will not exceed 75% of the registration fee.

To be considered, an applicant must show a financial need or extenuating circumstance that necessitates scholarship support. Scholarship recipients should demonstrate a serious commitment to the program and participate in all activities and performances.

Please submit this form – signed and dated – and a letter from the student explaining their interest in the performing arts.
